“ My deepest condolences to Allan, Candice, Weston and Diana Finn. I have such fond memories of sweet Erin. She was always happy and smiling when I would see her. She really lit up a room with her zestful personality, kindness and warmth. My heart goes out to her family. ❤️

“ Sweet, sweet Erin... we called you Erin Finnegan Begin-again and you would laugh and laugh. When I shut my eyes I can still hear your belly laugh and see your big smile. Being silly with you will always be some of my favorite memories.

Some people leave footprints on our hearts, shaping us in ways we never expected. Erin was one of those people. She was a bright light—radiating joy, warmth, and a spirit that touched everyone around her.

Through her laughter, determination, and the unique way she saw the world, she helped me realize my dream of becoming a special education teacher. She showed me the beauty in patience, the power of connection, and the immeasurable value of every individual.

Her impact on my life is something I carry with me always. The lessons she taught me—about love, resilience, and the magic of seeing the world through a different lens—will live on in the work I do and the lives I continue to touch.

Though Erin is no longer with us, her light will never fade. Her memory will always be a blessing, and I am endlessly grateful to have known her.

“ Erin was such a special girl!
She had a smile that you knew every thing was going to be ok.
I worked at WLC when she was in Mrs Harts.
May she RIP 🙏

“ Erin Finn was the most special girl ever born. She was a beacon of light that shone on everyone she encountered. Her smile and laughter were infectious and she persevered through even the hardest of times.

Erin Finn taught me about unconditional love. I am a better person and mother because of the lessons she taught me. This world lost something very special yesterday.

Rest easy, sweet girl. No one deserves it more than you 💜
