

EUGENE WEISS

April 17, 2015

Mr. Weiss, of West Bloomfield died April 15 at the age of 87. He was the beloved husband of Ellen.

Eugene was a hidden child during the Shoah in the mountain area of Czechoslovakia.

A member of Congregation Beth AHM, in the Detroit area, he founded, and owned several delicatessens including Morry's Triangle Grill in Allen Park and several Delicatessens at various Malls called Cornbeef King Delicatessens. After he sold them, he began Weiss Development Company which developed and managed properties throughout the area.

Funeral services at the Davidson-Hermelin Chapel at Clover Hill Park Cemetery in Birmingham.

Family Info:

Beloved husband of Ellen Weiss, loving father of Helene (Leslie) Kohn, Harvey (Terry) Weiss and Jeffrey (Sari) Weiss.

Dear brother of Leo (late Emma) Weiss, the late Fred (late Gloria) Weiss, the late Theodore (late Jean) Weiss, the late Emil Weiss, the late Harry (late Gizi) Weiss, the late Moritz Weiss, the late Joseph Weiss, the late Rose (late William) Weisberger, the late Miriam Weiss, and the late Leah Weiss.

Loving grandfather of Daniel Kohn, Erin Kohn, Lauren Weiss, Joshua Weiss and Kenneth Weiss. Also survived by loving nieces and nephews.

Dear siblings Moritz, Joseph, Miriam and Leah all perished in concentration camps.