“ Such beautiful tributes were expressed at the funeral by Ezra's and Tibodel L'chayim Tovim v'Aruchim, Naomi's children in honor of their father. Those of us who have known their family through our own Detroit years will attest to the absence of even a hint of exaggeration. One of Ezra's spare time activities going back 20 years or so, was to create stained glass art. A piece of his work was commissioned back then by the Fleischman Residence to adorn a large Memorial Tablet which covers a wall in a hallway outside of the Chaim Kaufman Chapel in the Fleischman Residence building in West Bloomfield. T'hi Zichro Boruch. May his precious Neshama serve as a Maylitz Yosher on behalf of his family, their community and all of Israel. Amen.

“ Baruch Dayan Emess. It has been 30 years since I left the Detroit community, however I do remember Ezra Roeberg and his parents (Aleyhem L'Shalom) as deeply committed to our Young Israel shul in Oak-Park. The elder Robergs were active members for Young Israel of Oak-Woods and recall Ezra many times in joining him in shul on Shabbosim. I am saddened to hear of his passing and send Nchamos to Naomi and the family. Yehi Zichro Baruch. Alan Gordon

“ My brother, Dr. Michael Elman and my daughters, Shoshana (Shira) and Tikva remember Reb Ezra Roberg as a true educator instilling Midos .I remember him for his devotion to Rabbi Levin's Shul, including his weeping at Tekias Shofar, feeling the Eimas Hadin. I also remember Reb Ezra as a devoted father and husband. Yehi Zicho Baruch. Hamakom Yenachem Eschem B'Soch She'ar Aveilei Tziyon Vi'rushalayim. Edward and Miriam Feigelman, Jerusalem, Israel.

מת אחד מין החבורה ידאג כל החבורה

We should never delay performing the מצוה of visiting the sick - or even the recuperating.

Who can foretell the future? And who wants to regret past opportunities that were allowed to slip through their fingers! Indeed.

May the precious נשמה of Ezra Roberg serve as a מליץ יושר on behalf of his devoted wife, Naomi, and the wonderful family that they established together!

המקום ינחם אתכם בתוך שאר אבילי ציון וירושלים.
