FLORENCE RUBINSTEIN HOFFMAN, 96, formerly of Huntington Woods, Michigan, died March 15, 2021. She was the loving wife of the late Dr. Louis Hoffman for 66 years. She is survived by her four children: Andrew, his wife Wes Brown and children Samantha, Jacob and Zachary; Karen and her daughter Natalie; Judy, her husband Alan Baumgarten and children Nathan (Ivana) and Alexandra (fiancée Sam Cates); Anne, her husband Evan Cohen, and their children Sarah, Laura and Dana; and by her great-grandchildren Oskar and Maks Baumgarten. She was pre-deceased by her brother David.

She was born in Detroit to Benjamin and Sarah Rubinstein. She attended Central High and received BA and MA degrees from Wayne State University. She taught English at Northern High School for 3 years, and then stopped out to raise her family. She later returned to Wayne to obtain a Masters in Social Work, and she subsequently worked for many years at the Jewish Family Service of Metro Detroit. After Louis died, she moved to Providence, RI to be close to her daughter Anne. She loved poetry, political discussions, cooking and Yiddishkeit.

 Cathy Hoffman

“ During the latter years of their lives, I would bring my dad to visit with Uncle Lou and Aunt Flory. While the brothers shared memories and had discussions together, Aunt Flory and I would visit together. We enjoyed the time talking about holiday baking and recipes. I was able to get to know her on an ‘adult, personal’ level.

My heartfelt condolences to my cousins and their families at this time of loss. May you find peace in the love and memories you share together and from those of us who hold you in our hearts...
