“ Family, please know how special Fran was to all of us who shopped at Hollywood. I loved her smile when I wished her Shabbat Shalom on Fri. Afternoons! Bonnie Wagman

“ I was very sorry to read about Frances' sudden death. I would see her all the time at Hollywood Market where I shopped. We always spoke upon meeting. She would come to various performances of Silver Strings to see Lee Lack play. As my husband, Bert used to play with that group, we would see her there.
Shirley, you have our deepest sympathy. We are very sorry to learn of your loss.

“ I will remember Frances as one of my peers and to let you know I was highly inspired by her. Whenever I met up shopping at the local grocery during the years, we always said Hello. I express my sincere condolences to you, Shirley, and your family. Linda Matenky (sister to Judy, JM).

“ From my sisters Linda and Laura and I, our deepest condolences to Shirley and Debbie for your loss. I remember Frances from school when we were children growing up in Detroit and then later on when she and my sister Linda were roommates for a time in Southfield. May you both find comfort in your faith and in loving memories of your daughter and your sister.

“ My condolence to the family. When someone we love dies it can be very difficult to cope with day to day issues. Our loving God, Jehovah, knows your pain and is ready to offer you comfort from the scriptures. God's people look forward to the time when Isaiah 25:8 is fulfilled. There we have the promise that one day our God will swallow up death forever and mankind will live forever on the earth as promised at Psalm 37:11, 29. Until that day comes please draw comfort from Jeremiah 29:11, 12. There Jehovah says when we pray to him, he will listen.
