Age 82, of West Bloomfield, died May 15, 2023

Franklin Greenberg served his country making replacement teeth for soldiers that had theirs lost/destroyed during the war. These skills he learned in the army were then applied to his passion of creating and repairing items in the jewelry business. Later in life, he became a certified auctioneer and practiced as an antique and jewelry specialist. He was a lifetime member of the Knights of Pythias and served as the chancellor as well for several years. He was a very giving and kind man with a sharp sense of humor. He also donated his skills as an auctioneer supporting several local charities and fundraisers. He loved singing and was a participant in the Temple Emanuel (Oak Park) choir. This brought him great joy singing and performing in public.

Beloved husband to Lois Greenberg.

Devoted father of Jay Greenberg (Erica), Jennifer Greenberg-Morgan (Sean), Douglas Benghiat (Katia), and Michael Benghiat (Marcy).

Loving grandfather of Micayla Greenberg, Audra Bergman, Bradley Benghiat, Jordan Benghiat, Olivia Morgan, Hazel Morgan, Aliya Benghiat, and Stellina Benghiat.

Cherished brother of the late Helene Simon and the late Renee Hartman.
