I have vivid memories of going over Uncle Alex's and Bessie's house on Manor for cookouts. My folks would hang out but us kids, Jared, Fred, Jeffrey, David and I'd be running around. Fred was older and more mature whereas we were silly and goofy. Those were good days in the Mann's backyard on Manor. Later in life, Fred helped me out of a few legal jams - very wise, a lawyers lawyer.

“ Margie
Was so glad to be able to watch the service on the stream from Santa Monica. So glad Rick was there. I loved hearing more lovely things about Fred. But of course the memories it really brought back in force were the treasured ones with you and Fred at our home around the dining table and my Dad of course playfully teasing someone about something. My heart is with you!!!

“ Dear Fred was always the smartest boy in the room at Mumford High School, which is saying a lot. He was a good friend of mine, and he continued to be a friend when we went to Michigan. Marge Moselle was also a good friend of mine at Michigan. They met, and the rest is history. Rest in peace, dear Fred. May your memory be a blessing.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Fred Mann. Back in the 1970's, I attended the Oak Park public schools with Joel Mann. My name was Gail Sinkoff. Again, my deepest condolences.
