“ I worked alongside Freda at the Rubenstein Law Firm for many years. She was one of the most fascinating people I have ever known! Freda was intelligent, gracious, well-read, humorous, witty, kind, sensitive and, at times, a little FEISTY!

She was my “springboard” for ideas, opinions, concepts and philosophies. Nobody had a better “way with words” than Freda Hartman!

I am very saddened to recently learn of her passing. We had “lost” contact over the years – and I did not know about her current circumstances or address. I very much wish that I had known – especially during these recent years.

I send my very sincerest condolences to her family and friends.

I rejoice that she now joins her precious family members who preceded her – and also presume that she is sharing great stories with our other “Sisters in Law” who were there to welcome her.
WELL DONE GOOD FRIEND!
