I've been an internet friend of Gayle's for many years. We actually met once, too. She flew here to attend a conference in Washington DC. I picked her up at BWI airport and she stayed at my house in Maryland overnight. We talked on the phone several times a year so I knew she had stage 4 cancer. I tried to call her today and when I heard her phone was disconnected, I figured the worst and looked to see if I could find her obituary. So I'm sorry to see this. My deepest condolences to Pete, Tiffany and Abigail. She loved you all and talked of you often!

Again. Thanks for everyone who came. It was a small ceremony of her life. But it was beautiful and peaceful.

I met Gayle years ago when cousin Pete introduced her to our family. In that one visit you could see the love and happiness they shared for each other. Cherish the memories. The smiles will come when you share those memories with others. I will always remember her Christmas card was the first one we received every year. Sincerest sympathy to all, Cathy.
