“ I have fond memories of Uncle Jerry & Aunt Shirley bringing Carmel apples from Eastern Market for the sweet table at my Bat Mitzvah, selling me Shirley's car at the family discount & flying in for my Dad's, his brother Mert's funeral. Linda Robbins Hammer

“ Gerry and I go back a long way. His wife Shirley was a bowler with me. His brother Mert was married to my best friend Helene. We shared many good times together. May he rest in peace and I send my thoughts to his family, who I knew so well., Barbara Geller

“ I have many wonderful memories of Gerry -helping him at the Eastern Market stall, helping him at the Maos Chittim Passover drive (now Yad Ezra) in its early days, and many social occasions with him and Shirley. He truly was a generous, kind man who always had a warm smile for all.He will be greatly missed.
