“ I met Gerry when she signed up for an adult Hebrew class I was teaching at Congregation B'nai Moshe somewhere between 15 and 20 years ago. She and I bonded over the fact that we both were "shul people" - our husbands, not so much. Gerry and I would see each other from time to time at adult ed classes and I enjoyed our acquaintance very much. I also met Phil on a number of occasions and was always was glad to see him, too. Lost touch with Gerry in recent years but still have those fond memories of being lifelong learners together.

“ My greatest memories of Aunt Gerry revolve around conversations. They were always interesting and involved whether they were about world events or family, and I looked forward to them. Needless to say, the parenting both she and Uncle Phil did together are a wonderful legacy. Their children, my cousins, are accomplished, wonderful human beings who continue to pass this along to their children. Fantastic!
