Joni...you will always live on as a reflection of all that was good in your mother. You were lucky to have her, and she lucky to have you. How fortunate you were to have Gloria in your life; I'm just so sorry that she left you so long before she passed. May her memory bring a smile rather than a tear some day.

“ I sweetest memories are when we were kids & the Michigan cousins were coming 2 visit NY. All the excitement going to Aunt Bertha's house & the fun we had.

Also, later in adulthood all of us going to the "BEST" Italian restaurant in NY...Mama Leoni's.

Michiganders obviously don't really know what great Italian food is!

*Love to all my Cuz's....Gloria was one tough, wonderful Aunt.

“ So sorry for your loss but at least Aunt Gloria is finally at peace. She will forever be remembered as the truly beautiful person she was. And we will always have the wonderful memories of our visits to Oak Park and yours to NYC in the 50's and 60's. Here she is with Uncle Seymour at my Bar Mitzvah in Queens, NY in 1963.
