“ It was always such a special treat for me to visit Laura's grandparents. I was always so graciously welcomed into their home. Even as we grew older this was something I looked forward to when I was invited over to watch TV or just to sit together and eat. I'm so fortunate to have known him. I will always cherish the memories of him constantly telling me how much he loved and adored Laura and the extension of all she cared about. While he is not here anymore physically, he will forever live on in our hearts and for the future generations of their family. My thoughts are with all who knew and loved him.
