“ I remember Hadassah with fondness. Although first cousins, the difference in our ages caused us to grow up in different generations and often in different cities. Nonetheless, Hadassah made many efforts to connect with me over the years. She was always curious and avidly interested in the goings on in my life, especially politically. In that way she was like her mother, Huldah, one of my favorite aunts. I recall memories of when she and Irv visited Chicago where I live. We'd get together and talk and talk and talk.

*Condolences to all of Hadassah's family.
May her memory be a blessing.*

“ Mrs. Rosen and her family has been a part of our family for as long as I can remember. She was so special to all of us in the Zimberg home. She would always visit, and always kept us up-to-date with her news. I was lucky enough to speak to her about 2 weeks ago, when I called her just before Shabbos. She asked all the particulars about my my mom and sounded so happy. She was telling me how proud she was to be able to represent her faith in her residency. She was so determined to show, and shine her good light as the Jewish resident. So touching, wish I could be as proud as her. At the end of our conversation I wished her a good Shabbos. Immediately we responded with a thank you, that she hadn't heard a wish for a good Shabbos in so long. A true Hero of our people... A hero in the dark.

“ Hadassah was one of my lifelong best friends. Our sabbath was always more special when she and Arthur would visit, politics being a lively topic with Donald and I. She kept me well informed dropping off articles of interest. I remember her husband Irv treasured her dearly. The community at large owes a great hakaras Hatov to both of them in securing the building where the Yeshiva Gedolah stands today. She will be missed.

I miss her and will continue to miss her. My late wife Barbara Rosen really loved her mother and father and the rest of her family. I loved Hadassah's spirit and personality.

We were in IRP together and she was a highly intelligent person. More important, she was a true friend to me, and I will remember her forever.

“ I will miss listening to her conversations with Lenny and how she always managed to draw from him a huge belly laugh. The world will be a little dimmer without her.

“ Hadassah Rosen taught me many things...her love for books, for her family, and for Israel. These attributes and core life principals helped shape who I am today. I would spend lots of time at Debbie's house after school during junior high and high school afternoons. Unlike my own home, it was lively and lots going on. It was respite that I reflect back that helped me more than words could express. I remember telling her that my Baubee made me a life member of Hadassah. She said something like: "Me too, because that's my name!" I am saddened for her passing, but glad she is out of pain and discomfort. I hope and pray for peace for her and her family. I will miss your mom, Debbie. Condolences to you and all your family.
