What a beautiful service and tributes by Amy's niece and Elisa Zabel. A "long" life, though short, as rabbi Pinson explains. So much laughter and love. May all her friends and family carry that with them forever.

Beautiful sentiments for beautiful Amy. Especially loved the Breakfast Club reference and hearing from her best friend - very honest and lovely words. I am still in disbelief and am having a hard time understanding but feel lucky that I met her and got to call her my friend. I can relate to Elisa's sentiments - I was also a rule follower and had to hold back laughter when I sat next to her or behind her in my classes at NFHS. I will never forget her.

“ Amy and Jonathan Dwoskin used to come to my house for lunch quite often during North Farmington High School lunch break, when students were allowed to leave the premises. We totally ruined that for generations thereafter.... I remember one day Amy thought it would be hilarious to build the largest sub sandwich we could with all that we had in my refrigerator. It was like 4 feet long. Ridiculous. So funny. Everything with Amy was larger than life, as was her heart. My son still sleeps with the Buzz Light year blanket she bought for him, and my 13 year old daughter is wearing the lip gloss she brought for her, 10 years later. Grosse, but nice.. Amy was a one of a kind, kinda chic. Love ya, you crazy ..... 💖

“ Amy wasn't someone you could ever forget! How fortunate I was to have met her while standing in line at a Depeche Mode concert in Phoenix back in 1993. We became instant friends and my life was forever better because of our chance meeting. Amy's spirit lives on... in the hearts of those with who she shared her generous, vivacious, LOL funny, sweet soul.

“ I'm sorry for the loss of such a beautiful soul here on earth. Now she will be doing her thing from the other side. She was a student of mine at Irene's, we had a great connection, and she introduced me to some massage music that I still use in my practice today! Each time I play it I remember her beautiful energy & care for others.
Love & light to all of her loved ones.

“ I have known Amy G. since high school. An unlikely duo, (not really unlikely)
A Chaldean girl, and Jewish girl instantly friends!
Our love of food, culture, and mostly people. We shared a love of good Middle Eastern food but most of all we shared a human bond. We shared a love of people from all various backgrounds. We looked beyond religion, race or creed. We may have been from different backgrounds but this never made a difference to us. She welcomed everyone with open arms! She would come over to my parents house during high school. My mom would say "Call Amy G I just made a fresh batch of Dolma (stuffed grape leaves) for her." Often times my mom, me and Amy would talk about the old country. Amy's love of Israel, my mom's love of the Middle East. Amy was open minded, thoughtful, and respectful. My mom never forgot that vivacious personality. She often asks "How's Amy G doing?" Today I sadly had to inform my mom of Amy's passing. My family is in utter shock of your passing Amy. I know you can hear us. Dearest Amy we know you are in a better place. May you soar up towards the Heavens! Rest in Peace my dear friend. You will be missed!
Love always and G-d bless you!

“ Im so very sorry. So very shocked to see this. I only knew Amy online and on the phone, we met in a diabetic support group, both having vision issues, neuropathy, diabetes we had a lot in common and we spoke on the phone a few times during our struggles especially with vision. She truly helped me and I hope I helped her. My thoughts and prayers to you all. She truly was a blessing and will be missed.
