“ I met Hal when he moved to Hechtman. Hal brought positivity and joy to our community. He always shared a smile and a positive word, both with Hechtman residents and staff and with Fleischman residents and staff. He shared details of his life and always shared that he lived a wonderful life. He shared his zest for life through his enjoyment of music, including his dancing skills, his pursuit of Jewish studies in our sessions with Rabbi Polter and Rabbi Rabin, and so much more. It has been my honor and pleasure to share life with Hal.

“ Harold and his wife, Harriet, were 2 wonderful parents of 2 outstanding kids at Oak Park High where I was a teacher. I also taught with Harold at Lawrence Tech where he was revered as an outstanding teacher. He was also revered at Cass Tech where he taught for many years. Harold was a great husband, a great parent, and an outstanding educator. He touched many lives.

“ I met Harold as a wonderful parent of 2 exceptional kids at Oak Park High where I was a teacher. I later taught with Harold at Lawrence Tech where he was considered a most outstanding Adjunct Professor. He was also considered a great teacher at Cass Tech. Harold was a most wonderful man who touched so many people’s lives.
