“ My Aunt Harriet was an amazing woman! She was my father's "big" sister, being 10 years older than he. She always looked out for him, and protected him. Her love and devotion spread to all her family. I was just watching my wedding video (from 36 years ago). In it, I saw my beautiful Aunt Harriet sitting in the congregation. I remember that, at the end of the ceremony, she turned to my cousin, Michael, and said, "Okay Michael, now you can take me to the hospital." He asked, "Why would you want to go to the hospital now, mom?" She replied, "I fell earlier today, and I think I broke something." (She had fractured her hip!) "But, I didn't want to miss Kenny's wedding." Her memory will always be a blessing! Kenny Elman (Danny's son)

“ *Whenever we would visit Detroit my wife Joanne and I would have dinner with my cousin Harriet. She will be sadly missed. There were once 19 of us Gantz first cousins, with the loss of Harriet there are only 7 of us left.

Cousin Harriet was the daughter of my late Aunt Jeanne Elman and Uncle Abe Elman. Aunt Jeanne was one of the 9 Gantz kids, 1 of 9 siblings. Harriet was my grown up cousin as I remember her long ago, and I admired her beauty, I thought as a child growing up she was one of the most beautiful women I had ever seen. Harriet was 3 years younger than my mother, another couple years younger than my dad. I remember her Grandson " Dougy" at my cousin Carol and Sids wedding. He was the Ring Bearer and I was the Flower girl.I last saw my cousin Harriet at their Jewellery store, she was in her 60's and still very BEAUTIFUL. Wish I knew her better being first cousins, but really she was my moms age nearly, generational difference it seemed.I hope to learn about her early life as well as her whole life story. I'll keep searching this post as others write in. I moved to Australia after buying my new wedding ring from her in Birmingham in 1980, and seeing her for possibly the last time, or at my dads funeral in 2008.
