“ I first met Harry & Esther years ago, during my tenure as Religious Director at the Fleischman Residence. Esther's mother a"n was living at the Hechtman Apartments, and this devoted daughter and son-in-law would visit her regularly. May Esther and the entire Dines family be comforted from Above amongst the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

“ Our heart felt sympathies to Esther and family. We have known Harry for over 50 years Our friendship started in the late sixty's in Southfield when we were neighbors and continued when we both move to West Bloomfield.

Harry was a good family man who enjoyed going to shul. We always celebrated New Years Eve together.

Harry was always friendly with people. When we got together we would discuss world events, the stock market, and current issues, He was highly educated in history.

He was a good friend and we will miss him.
