"Selfless", she was loved by many and always thought of other's first. A life time member of Jewish Women International, a member of National Council of Jewish Women, she recently belonged to Adat Shalom Synagogue, and previously was a 42 year member of Congregation Beth Shalom and its Sisterhood where she recently received an award. A board member of Beth Shalom's Sisterhood she was a Membership Vice-President, Education Vice-President and Corresponding Secretary. she also started the Yiddish Club there and was active with the Beth Shalom Cultural Commission. She was an avid bowler and was president of her bowling league. She was also a member of the Auxiliary for Jewish Home the Aged. Besides being lucky in love, she was extremely lucky in any contest she decided to enter.

Beloved wife for 58 years to Merton Robbins.
