“ I first met Herb, in Schwabach Germany. We both served in the 2/4 Cav. We were good friends in the Army. After we got out we did not see each other until June of 2011, at Gettysberg Pa. We both attended an Army reunion there. I was so glad to see Herb again. We called each other from time to time I still have his number in my phone. We attended a few more reunions together. He will be missed at the reunions by all of his army friends, and their families. Herb was a good man I am proud to call him friend. RM "ERNIE" MILLER

“ Sr Lieutenant Herb Silver is not gone
Popa is not gone
Pops is not gone
Zaeda is not gone
and Herbie is not gone...
He lives on in the hearts and souls of all who loved him
“Hey you live around here? I just moved here and got this paper route because I’m gonna save my money and buy a go cart”
“Hey Norm, I can’t make it to football practice, gotta get a job so I can buy a 52 Ford”
“Hey Norm, not going to college, joining the Army, they need me”
Hey Norm, gonna be a Fireman, Detroit needs me”
“Hey Norm, can’t make it to California, gotta save my money, Judy and me are getting Married”
“Hey Nick, can’t make it to LA this year gotta save up for the girls college”
“Hey Nick, ain’t gonna ride to California this year, have to save up for my Grandson, but did you here about the 3 guys that walked into a bar”

“ I met Herbie in 1962 and despite long absences and distances, I felt I could always call him a friend. Whenever I was in Detroit we would get together and have some laughs. That’s the way it was with Herbie. He made friends and kept them forever. He was always there with a good story, a warm heart and great BBQ ribs. He will be missed by many but never forgotten. His spirit will live on for a long, long time.

“ 8 months ago you called me to tell me you found my brother deceased Yale Zimmer and helped me run around and make arrangements and even had people over your house for his memorial. I have known you since I was 7yrs old, you were always a good friend to yale. I am so grateful to have seen you before you left this world. Heres hoping you and yale are both together again like old friends happy to see each other again because I know when we leave this world it isn't the end. It is a strange feeling knowing you are no longer with us. But you were dealing with your diagnosis in a most superior way. Typical fireman all heart and very brave. We will see each other again my friend. Shalomemy honey my condolences to your family as you will be sorely missed.

“ As I look back on the Sixty six years of knowing Herbie, I know that I was blessed to be in his circle of friends, Always smiling and telling me jokes, working in the Fire Department with him and his brother Alan, helping me pick out my harley and riding together, and enjoying the days at his house when he would cook hot dogs the old way by boiling on the stove. Rest in peace Herb, and my condolences to his daughters who he always spoke of with true affection. I will never forget you

“ A one of a kind guy. My best memory of Herbie was when he volunteered to work Christmas so some in the Engine house could be with their family. Also his Two Retirement Parties. May our Lord welcome him.

“ Herbie didn't just live life...he embraced it, he shook it by the shoulders and enjoyed every minute of it. He told me when he was first given his dire diagnosis that his chances of survival would be limited...but he wasn't afraid. He felt that no matter the outcome, he was grateful for his time on earth with all the love and friendship that he had experienced. He was loved by his friends (and there were many)...he was loved by his family...he was very proud of his daughters, Juli and Missy. And he was loved, beyond all comprehension, by his Grandson, Jasper. Herbie returned all that love...tenfold. He brightened the lives of all that knew him with a joke or a story (Herbie had many stories...many stories). We will miss him and will never forget him and are better for having known him. Herb told me recently that his life exceeded his youthful expectations and that he was grateful and thankful for each day that greeted him. He was one of the kindest and most giving friends and that is why in return he had so many of them. He served his country well and did a swell duty for his community. He always went out of his way and was there when he wS needed. He loved his daughters and his grandson Jasper so much and bragged how he finally had a kid for whom he could buy a truck. I could go on and on about how Her. Was so fun and also how he always extended a helping hand. But there are really not enough words to describe the wonderful soul he has inside. Today he is knocking on heaven's door and I think due to the grand man that Herb is, I think G-d himself will be there to personally to meet him and see him through eternity. Love 2 Herb. 🇺🇸

Herb and I shared a joyous twenty one year relationship that I will cherish for the rest of my life. He was kind, generous and so funny; a comedian with a great delivery. He was a social butterfly with countless friends who loved him. He made constant trips to the airport picking up family and friedns. He loved to give and most of all, he loved Julie, Missy and Jasper. No one can fill the void he leaves behind.

His memory will always be a blessing to those of us who got to know Herbie. He was one of a kind friend, father and grandfather. My heart goes out to his daughters, family and Jasper for the void of his passing. His presence never dies and never to be forgotten.

Although we went to the same high school Herbie and I never spoke until 8 yrs ago right after I lost my father I was staying alone at my father's house after my sister left to go back up north and I was very depressed. The next day Billy Rayle told me I missed Herbie's wonderful summer rib fest and many of my friends had been there so I called Herbie to tell him why I missed the party. Well he came over to my Dad's house with a slab of ribs and stayed and kept me company for the whole day. I hardly knew him but thought he was so nice to do that He told me he had a crush on me in 9th grade and never skipped that class because I was in it LOL I said "Why didn't you ever talk to me?" He said he didn't know. This began an 8 yr friendship with this very kind and generous and funny man He came to Florida every year and we spent many fun times together and not just in Florida I saw him in NY,Ann Arbor, Petoskey, Charlevoix and of course all over Detroit. I saw his fire station in Detroit We crashed reunions.(Mumford) There was never a dull moment with Herbie. The first time he came to my house accidentally broke my TV in the first 20 minutes of being there. I used to tease him and call him the Don Juan of Bloomfield Hills because he had so many girlfriends! I got to meet Missy and Julie in Florida and thought they were great! I saw how much he loved them and they loved him! He was over the moon when Jasper was born! I will miss all the fun times we had and there are so many more. I always said." Did my dad send you to take care of me because he was so kind to me. I was blessed to know Herbie and I will miss him very much. I hope it brings his family comfort to know how much he was loved by so many people! RIP Herbie and thank you for everything!
