*Hershel was a long time friend, and a comrade in arms. Through the years that we worked together in Jewish Hospice, we shared a close bond, based on mutual respect and we often communicated silently, with just a smile or a mutual knowing nod of our heads without having to speak a word. I will miss his heartfelt greetings of "how are you?", because he sincerely wanted to know. T'hey Zichro Boruch. To his Aishes Chayil and their entire wonderful family: HaMakom Yenacheym Esschem Bsoch She'ar Aveiley Tzion v'Yerushalayim!!
