“ *Linda , I'm so sorry to learn of your mom's passing.
When I saw your name , memories flooded back to me of your friendship with my daughter, Linda Rubin.
There were many of your mutual friends that bonded together. It's a long time ago.
My Linda has been gone almost 13 years in February.
My heart goes out to you on the loss of your mom.*

“ The wedding of Rob Batchko was a classic Hilda moment. She was asking Jay how long it would take for food, etc. so Jay, in turn, announced to everyone that we would hurry the wedding so Hilda and her friend Barbara could start driving back to Florida. Even Hilda cracked up!!!! Awesome memory ...

I remember that! Aunt Hilda was on a schedule. Completely understandable. She was the best. ❤️

Then there was the time we were at a deli in Florida. Burt and Fern were with us. Hilda ordered a bagel with Liz. But she wanted the bagel cut in three pieces so she could throw out the middle slice and reduce the carbs. The poor waiter had no clue what to do and stated “ I have never been asked to slice a bagel in threes. Tell me again what you want”.. 10 minutes later she gave up and just scraped out the extra dough...

Hilda was the best. A second mother to me. As my friendship grew with Al and Mike, our mothers became good friends too. I will certainly miss her.
