“ I am saddened to hear of Aunty Hinda’s passing. She’s always brought so much joy, strength, and love to her family. My favorite memories of Aunty Hinda were being able to see the sisterly bond between her and my grandma. Most recently, I happened to be there when Aunty Hinda visited my grandma in the hospital, and as soon as Aunty Hinda came into the room, my grandma’s face lit up. It was so special to witness the love and support between them. This photo is from their birthday celebration in 2018 and always makes me so happy.

Sending so much love to the family. Hinda was so deeply loved — her memory will live on in all of us.

“ On September 4, 2025 the world lost an incredible woman, my Aunty Hinda. My Aunty was a sweet and caring person. She wanted others to be happy and she always tried to bring joy to others. Her greatest love in life was her family. She enjoyed, cherished and loved her husband, my uncle Joe, her children(Phyllis, Wendy and Lee), her grandchildren, great grandchildren, and many family members . Although my heart aches, I believe that my Aunty is now in a peaceful place reunited by loved ones. Aunty please take care of my dad and always know that you will always be in my heart ❤️.
