“ Howard was an amazing person full of passion. His late wife Ann was my best friend and Howard became one of my best friends. Oh the wonderful conversations we had on the phone the last couple of years. I miss our talk and I miss Howard who had so much compassion and love.

“ My heart is empty. Howard was an example of a caring and devoted friend. He will be remembered, greatly missed and hold a special place in my heart. A very special thank you to Howards dear friends for showing a true act of friendship, giving unconditional support, love and care to our friend. May his memory bring comfort to all .
