“ I met Howard the first day of first grade in Mrs. Weinberg's class at Roosevelt Elementary in Oak Park. He lived around the corner on Oakwood Drive... and we became fast friends. Baseball, football... all sports, in fact... were our passion. Every winter as kids we made money as partners in "Ra-Lew Snow Removal"... shoveling snow from the sidewalks and driveways of our neighbors. Summers were spent playing ball at the field we made in the empty lot across from his house. We were inseparable until we hit 7th grade and junior high school when we went in different directions and hung with different crowds. I saw him last at our 10-year high school reunion in 1982. We spent time remembering the good old days but again went our own ways. News of his passing has saddened me greatly. I will always enjoy my many happy memories of my boyhood pal... as they last forever. My thoughts are with Paulette and her family. -- Goodbye, my friend. --David Lewis
