“ Only today I learnt of Howard's passing and I am very sad. I met him and his wife Anita in Munich and we had a very intensive conversation after he had shown his great film "Journey to Justice". He was a wonderful man. I will never forget him and my thoughts are with his family.

“ We are very sorry to learn of Howard's passing. Anita, it has been a very long time for us. I still remember, very clearly the days at Cass Lake Bayside Marina when we had our boats moored next to each other. We all share fond memories of Howard. He was a very fine man.... I worked with Howard many years ago photographing weddings. He did the movies and I did the stills. I found him to be a man of ethics and gentleness. I now reside in the Coville apartments and want to express my condolences to both the Triest families as well as Margot.....Dave Dombey

Wir sind sehr traurig und in Gedanken bei Anita und der gesamten Familie.

Wir werden Howard NIE vergessen, in unserem Herzen bleibt er immer.

In Liebe

Gisela Kerling mit Familie

Wir haben Anita und Howard in unser Herz geschlossen. Howard war ein wundervoller und liebenswerter Mensch. Seit längerer Zeit haben wir Howard und Anita nicht mehr telefonisch erreicht und uns große Sorgen gemacht.

Erst heute haben wir erfahren, dass Howard verstorben ist.

Wir sind sehr sehr traurig und unsere Gedanken sind bei der Familie, die wir ALLE in München kennengelernt haben.

*Dear Anita,
it was with deep sorrow that I learned of Howard's passing.
I have such dear memories of when he came to Munich with many of his family members and presented "Journey to Justice" at the Filmfest.
The film made and left a deep impression on Munich audiences.
Howard charmed everyone he met with his wit and humor. We will always remember him.*

*Love,
Ulla Rapp*
