“ I also just heard of Hy's passing and was a caregiver to his wife Rose. I have thought of Hy often this year as I have been caring for a woman in the Meer community in West Bloomfield since January. My co-worker Anna thought that may also be where Hy was last living and I enquired but nobody was familiar with his name. My prayers and condolences to his son, daughter in law and granddaughter. He was a kind gentle soul blessed with longevity.

“ I just heard of Mr Hymans passing tonight and I'm very sad to hear that he left this world without me knowing. He was a great man. My name is Anna and I took care of Hyman's wife Rose until she passed. I continue to stay in touch with him over the years and was last able to speak with him just before the covid virus hit after that I was unable to get in touch with him and I just found out through another person that he passed away 😞 mayor I know it's months later but I wanted to pass on my prayers and condolences to you and your family and your time of Sorrow there was a great joy to know your father and your family and be able to be a part of your lives. Thank you Mr. Hyman Fox for all you showed me over the years and all your patience and your kindness to me and my family may you rest in peace 🙏

“ I have known Hy since we were neighbors in Southfield in the 60's. After moving to West Bloomfield, we were members of B'nai Moshe. For a number of years more recently we both got together for lunch in the ROMEOs group. I often picked him up and drove him. We had many discussions in the car even though he was 20 years older than I was. I lost touch with him when I recently moved to Maryland but I always thought about him. I will never forget you Hy.

“ I was blessed to have Hy Fox for an uncle. He was a kind and gentle soul. I always enjoyed spending time with him, even if the opportunities were to few and far between. Seeing him for his 100th birthday is a memory I will always treasure, as is my memory of going to Tiger stadium with him for a ballgame when I was just 11 (and there are many more between those two events). Much love to you Mayer, Sarita and Eryn.

Wow, Hy lived a long time! G-d bless him. I'm a distant cousin to his wife Rose, and have a letter from Rose and her mother, Mamie Selikowitz, that was sent to my grandmother. According to my mom, there weren't any descendants from this side of the family but maybe she was wrong. I'll have to update the family tree if I find out there are.

“ What a special, selfless human being he was. From the time that I found out that his name was Chaim, I tried to always address him as "Reb Chaim". He certainly was deserving of that level of respect. My wife and I first met Reb Chaim when his brother, Paul, was living at the Fleischman Residence. Every Shabbos, Reb Chaim would come to visit Paul during lunch, following the conclusion of Shabbos services at Bnai Moshe. Invariably, Reb Chaim would take a detour after spending some 15 minutes with Paul, and he would make a beeline from the opposite side of the dining room, to come over to our table, to extend Shabbos greetings to my wife and myself. What a mensch!! The few times that I attempted to get to him first, Reb Chaim would chastise me in that sweet, good-natured voice, and would say - "Rabbi, ess pahst nisht that you should come to me. I should be coming to you!".

Reb Chaim - you are a lost treasure to your family, to your countless friends, to your Bnai Moshe shul, which meant so much to you, and personally, to my wife and myself! T'hey zichrichoh boruch - may your memory be blessed. May you be a Maylitz Yosher for your wonderful family who loved you immensely - as you loved them! May they be consoled by Heaven amongst the Mourners of Zion and Jerusalem!!

Hy Fox was a treasure - a true mensch. I and hundreds of other IRP members had the pleasure of attending classes with Hy for many years until he was late in his 90s. He spoke sparingly and modestly, and everything he said made sense, backed up reliable information, personal experience, a keen intellect, and much wisdom. There was also a sweetness and gentleness about him - always a smile, and a warm greeting. God made a very good man when he made Hy Fox. He will be much missed.

"Hi, Hy" were two words I have uttered hundreds of times. Hy would always respond with "Hi, Barry." I am one of the countless people who loved and respected Hy Fox. It was always a joy to see Hy in Shul. He participated in so many activities. I could always count on Hy to attend class sessions and discussions. Meir, you have my heartfelt prayers and condolences.
