

HYMAN NEEDELMAN

January 19, 2015

Mr. Needelman died January 15 at the age of 97. He was the beloved husband of the late Freda.

Hymie was born in Russia in 1917, and spent his childhood and young adult years in the Cincinnati area. Upon marrying his beloved wife, Freda in 1951, he moved to the Detroit area where he spent the rest of his life with his growing family. He had a number of business opportunities over the years such as owning and appliance repair shop, a driving school, as well as his industrial supply tool business. With his panel truck, he sold tools to most of the machine shops and manufacturing plants throughout the metropolitan Detroit area. He retired from his business at age 95, after 40 successful years.

Funeral services at Hebrew Memorial Chapel in Oak Park.
