“ As a young child, my family and i lived next door to Sara and ida Falinsky - we would call Sara - Grandma Sara as our own grandmother lived in Israel and our father’s mother was killed in the holocaust. Grandma Sara was always delighted to have us come over and visit with her. She taught our mother to make sweet rolls filled with cinnamon and cloves- Ida worked at the Chsnnel 7 news station with Bill Bonds the nightly news personality - aids would always bring out paper n crayons for us to color - asking ya to draw the money trees so we could all be rich and so she and my intents wouldn’t have to work so hard; in later years Aida was very stoic never letting on how much she struggled to make ends meet - never wishing to leave her house in Detroit even as the neighborhood had changed - my parents would go and spend the day with her - even having yard sales- they called them “shmatah sales” or rag sales! Ida was a serious soul yet could always have a quick smile and laugh to lighten the mood or moment - Ida - thank you for so positively shaping the childhood of my brothers, sister and I - with all our love - Gita
