“ I will truly miss Irving. We made a connection at Jewish Senior Life on my first day of work when he asked where I lived (along with MANY other questions!). It turned out I had bought the condo of a late friend of his, Isadore Birnbaum. I enjoyed sitting and chatting with him when time allowed. When my office moved to Oak Park, I stopped in to Fleischman see him whenever I could. I am sorry I could not make the service or shiva to pay my respects. May he rest in peace and may his memory serve as a blessing to those that knew and loved him.

“ Rest in forever peace Irving . You were the 1st person to say hello to me when I came in for a interview and hung out with me in the atrium area while I was waiting for the interview at flieshmans a little less than 2months ago. And as I got hired and worked in the kitchens you always had a kind smile to me and asked me a bunch of questions and such. You were my 1st resident friend at flieshman . Thank you Irving for your kindness and friendship . You are forever a beautiful blessing. Rest in forever peace you will forever will be missed. From Jennifer kitchen staff at flieshman.

To Irving's family you are in my prayers always. So sorry for your loss of dear Irving.
