As M.H. said in his comment- "now he has the answers ". I would add to that, that now Dr. Steiner also is fully aware of the years of dedication and devotion of his wife, Bracha, and their local son, Avi. The two of them were examples for all of us of what King Solomon wrote about in his classic "Aishes Chayil". If ever there was a family that fought the health system to protect the rights of their family member who could not advocate for himself, this family is one! That in addition to Bracha being there every weekday with home-prepared lunch and dinner, lovingly fed to him by his personal Aishes Chayil and their local son, Avi. Izzy clearly would not have survived as long as he did in the problem-infested long-term careless system if not for the immense love of his immediate family.
May his holy Neshama (which now knows all of the answers to our ongoing questions) serve as a Malitz Yosher for his wife, their beautiful family, their community and all of Ahm Yisroel.

“ I just found out minutes ago. Dr. Steiner was one of the few individuals that could combine a true Torah life with the the challenges of the secular world, which he also excelled in. Life is not fair, but he now has the answers.
