“ Jack hired me at Chippewa Drugs 65 years ago when I was 14 years old. He taught me how to greet customers, treat customers, handle cash, return the correct change, and so much more! He was so kind. I worked at the drugstore through high school and any time I chose to work while away at college. Jack helped develop a shy teenager and guide him to adulthood. I am forever grateful. I am so sorry for your loss but wanted Jack's family to know how he helped so many people.

“ Laurie, Debbie and family: Jack was the last of his generation. A great and lifelong friend with Evy to my parents. My fondest memory of Jack: when I was a young kid, he was the only one of my parents friends who actually talked with the kids and cared what we had to say. The first to say "don't call me Mr. Keil. Call me Jack." This meant a lot to a kid for an adult to care what you had to say! Jack was always caring. And interested in what we kids were doing or thinking. A truly kind heart, great wit and friend. He will be missed, but leaves behind a great family and great memories. My sympathies at this difficult time, but reunited with friends and family.

“ Hard to decide on just one memory, Uncle Jack was a huge influence in my life even though I rarely saw him due to distance. He always asked and showed a genuine interest in my life, what I was doing. Never judging or offering up advice just caring and inquisitive. We could all learn from that model of love. Another memory that I will never forget was the discovering that he played Harmonica and was really good! He was a cool! a great Dad, Father, Brother, Uncle and Man. He will be missed by all, especially by the Tigers.

“ My brother and I worked for Jack when he owned Chippewa drugs with Mort. In fact Evelyn baby sat my brother and me. So it's with great sadness I notice his passing. He was a good guy.

“ I worked at Chippewa Drugs with Jack and Mort during my high school years. Jack was my go to guy whenever I needed a friend to talk with, he was always there for me.
He always had that twinkle in his eye.
Sorry for your loss.

“ Your father, grandfather, great grandfather was the genuine, real deal. He always greeted me with the warmest smile that could light up a room! He asked questions about how I was and wanted to hear about my family. It was always amazing to me that I first new him as the nice man behind the tall counter as a Pharmacist when I was a small girl. I never knew he would bring me the gift of loving his entire family! He will be missed by all and remembered by his most genuine love of people!
Love to all from,
Lori and Bruce
