“ Jack worked for me as an upholsterer for over 16 years. I never regarded him as an employee but rather as family. He was an exceptionally nice, kind person and we never had a cross word. RIP, Jack and may your Neshoma have an Aliyah.

“ Although we are not related by blood, I always thought of him as "Uncle Jack". Jack and Ray, and their daughter Susie, were a constant and loving presence in my life as a child growing up in the Detroit area.

He was a kind, sweet, and thoughtful man. And a loyal friend to my father, Salek Allweiss.

I am so sad to hear of his passing, but even more grateful that he was a part of my life.

My thoughts and prayers are with you, Rachel and Susie. I wish I could be there to give you all a big hug <3

“ I was Jacks very first caregiver; I stayed with him for exactly 1 year. In that short time, I acquired MANY fond memories, heard LOTS of great stories and got to soak up some of his wisdom to carry with me. I was fortunate enough to meet Jack prior to his health decline, so I had the pleasure of hearing a lot of stories and forming a great bond with him. I couldn't possibly just share one memory because Jack was such a joy and so full of life; he made everyday significant. While my heart is heavy in his absence, I rejoice in my mind knowing that Jack is comfortable and at peace. No pain, no sickness and no turmoil (as he would say). I will cherish Jacks memory forever💙 I love you, Papa

“ Jack aka Papa was such a sweet, loving and happy guy. I've always admired him. When I came to spend time with Jack and Rachel, they were so welcoming and always asked about Dylan. For all the things Jack endured, he always smiled and moved forward and appreciated everything in his life. I will love and miss you always!

“ My family and I send our condolences to the Pludwinski family. When we first moved on Selkirk Street, 18 years ago, Rachel and Jack were the first to welcome us to the neighborhood. Jack was such a loving, wise, gentle man.

I'll miss our talks and waves. Mostly, I'll miss watching Jack and Rachel, walk hand in hand down the street, and I'll miss listening to you complete each other's thoughts and sentences.

We will never forget you Jack.

“ Dear Rachel, Susie and Tarackoff family,
Your dearest Jack was a longtime friend of my late father Zygie and late uncle Sol Allweiss. I am a senior citizen now (how did that happen?) and knew you, Ray, and Jack my whole life! Jack's passing marks the loss of another precious survivor of the Shoah, another irreplaceable soul.

I will always picture Jack sitting at the guys' table with my dad, Sol, Simon, Sonny and the other gents at the Friday breakfast club at Sero's, later moving to Little Daddy's. They loved to argue politics and were passionate about Israel! Rachel had breakfast with my late mom Irma, Aunt Frieda, Rita and the other ladies at the women's table. They had fun too. I miss those days and everyone in that generation above mine who has left us now.

I know Jack's legacy lives on in his grandchildren who cherished him. Please accept my heartfelt condolences at this saddest of times. Jack will always be remembered for a blessing.

*Sincerely yours,
Esther Allweiss Ingber*

“ Grandpa Jack

I could go on for days about you. I'll never forget the Conversations we've had about a bunch of nothing. Lol but if I could have them all over again with you I would. You will be missed with those little hands in your pockets.

“ He was such a sweet man. I remember the one year we walked to see the plan show in the park by their house.
