Jeanette was one of the kindest and most giving humans among my parents' friends. I will never forget when Frank died and what a shock it was to all of us that someone so full of life could be cut off so quickly. Jeanette was steadfast in her devotion to her family and she would often call my mom to check in and see how she was doing and spread a little bit of her joyful soul with us. My heartfelt condolences to all of the extensive Solway clan. We are thinking of you at this sad time for you and for Israel. We are traveling now, but very grateful to see this funeral and the deep love and connection you all had. May her memory be a blessing...for all of us. ❤️ Joyce Berman and Dan Carol

*Dear Solway Family,
We just adored your mom. Jeanette was a beautiful woman, mother, grandmother, and friend. She and your Dad, their warmth of spirit and kindness, the beautiful relationship they had with our parents too, will be forever be in our hearts. We send our love and deep condolences. Yes, May her memory be a blessing for all.

“ Favorite bubbly memories :

Her love for Israel*

Red Magen David Adom volunteering*

Her Tuna sandwiches*

Her meatballs*

Vernors*

Mandelbreit*

Strawberries and whipped cream*

First time I went to Saks was with her*

The happy birthday singing bear*

Watching Shirley Temple*

Her lucite menorah and tapered blue candlesticks*

Her game table and Chinese checkers*

Gumballs*

Cut up fruit*

Her little perfume bottles in the guest bathroom*

Her clip on earrings*

Her house coats*

She could get a stain out of anything*

Always donating clothes*

She liked milk in her oatmeal*

Her favorite color was blue*

She loved Yiddish and chazzan singing tapes*

She volunteered at the holocaust museum and friendship circle*

Her Yiddish pillows needlepointed by Ann Aronowitz*

Her rainbow wooden windup art on the wall*

Her book of phone numbers and addresses*

Her handwriting that was all capital letters*

Her newspaper clippings*

Her love for the Jewish news*

Her love for Detroit*

She was the glue of the family always catching everyone up on what was going on*

She would stand by the door and not close it until we drove away*

I remember Bubby would always take out of her purse those alcohol wipes for use to use before we ate

And she always used a straw at a restaurant*
When we went out to eat with bubby she'd show us how to use the wrapper from the straw and water to make it move like a worm*
She loved setting the table for shabbos, especially folding the napkins in different ways*
She had all the grandkids' art work up in her kitchen and everyone's school pictures up in her family room*
She had toothbrushes for all the grandkids with their name on it for when they slept over*

*I love you, Bubby and will miss you,

“Dear Solway family. I remember all of the countless hours I spent at your house growing up in Oak Park. My memories include cherished times filled with laughter, joy and love as I sat around your kitchen table listening to your parents sharing stories. Your mom's warmth and gentle spirit will stay with me forever. May her memory be a blessing to you all. She touched so many lives in a meaningful way, and all of you reflect her values. Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. Suzi (aka Selma) Wallace Epstein
