“ I just found out about Jerry’s passing. Jerry will always be one of my favorite neighbors. He was much older than me and the neighborhood kids but he would tell us jokes, and allow us to hang out with him as he threw the tennis ball to his favorite dog Umber. He would always take a deep drag of his cigarette, put his hands in his pockets while staring at the sky, take the cigarette out of his mouth and predict the next day’s weather. He was a one-off-a-kind. Jerry, you will be always be remembered. May you Rest In Peace.

“ Jerry was a close friend of my husband and myself for many years. He always treated me with kindness, and love. He and I even met on a blind date! We will forever miss him, and his humor!

Jerry grew up across the street from us. Fun little guy and did a hell of a George Carlin impression. Good guy. Shame he’s gone
