*Jerome was only 7 years old and I was 14 when I first spent my summers with the Zuroff's as a Mothers helper . What a terrific boy Jerome was. The oldest of 4 boys. My memories of him put a smile on my face.
Losing a loved one hurts ... the hurt lessens with time . Celebrate his life and all the good he shared with his family and friends. I'll remember his smile and happy demeanor.

“ Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds, — and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of — wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air. . . .
Up, up the long, delirious burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or ever eagle flew —
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

I will miss you my friend. Fly High.

“ I don't think I've ever seen a more appropriate funeral. I laughed and cried and laughed and cried. And I think this is exactly how Jerome would have wanted his funeral to be. Having grown up with David as my good friend and Jerome as my brother's good friend, I could almost see some of the stories come alive in my mind. I could see the Zuroffs house, I could see Dr Zuroff AH smirking and trying to calm you guys down at the same time, and I could hear the chuckles of everyone watching the Zuroff boys' antics. Many of us lived vicariously through all of you. Mrs Zuroff AH was always the vision of elegance, raising these crazy kids who she loved to pieces. I can smile now thinking of her greeting Jerome at the heavenly gates.

Seeing everyone all grown up was strange just now, while simultaneously listening to stories from our childhood and remembering you all- remembering all of us- as kids and teen agers. David and Jerome were quite the tag team, and my heart breaks for you David and for Sheryl, Mickey and Rafi as well. You all spoke so well, so perfectly. I am sure Jerome appreciated it. And Dena.... I have no words. Nothing I could say would be right at this time.

How time just moves along.....

Jerome's smile was legendary. And I for one will not forget it. המקום ינחם אתכם בתוך אבלי ציון וירושלים. Sending lots of love and support from Israel, Lisa "Kowalsky" Rosenthal “Initially, Jerome was my older brother's friend, so I paid little attention to him. But I knew him and his family and the many contributions they made over the years to the community. Then my dear friend Dena told me they were dating. That brought me to be more interested in knowing Jerome, because Dena deserved someone who was as special as her. He was quiet, but I learned that he was so kind and caring, had a great sense of humor and never judged anyone. Having grown up in Detroit, I knew that the Zuroff boys were daredevils. It seems that was still in him as he got older. I am so grateful for the time he and Dena were together. Now, we all have memories to share and relive; it's not enough, but I hope those memories help those who love him through the difficult times. My sincere condolences to the entire family.
