Sound is not coming through after rabbi starts talking. I have had three people call me that they are experiencing the same thing. Called Chapel and they said it is working for them. Very disappointed they didn't look into this problem.

What beautiful and evocative words were shared today. Spending only a few years with Jill at Akiva, I gained only some understanding of the depth of Jill's character. And beyond fulfilling Jill's instruction, "make me look good," today's hespedim gave a real feel for the values that did guide Jill's life and her legacy that will live on. May her memory continue to be a blessing.
