

JOHN ISRAEL JONES

June 27, 2013

John Israel Jones, 62, of Clarkston, died June 25, 2013. The son of a successful businesswoman, Sadie Perrin Jones and a former minister and historical labor leader, Lloyd T. Jones, John inherited both the gifts of businessman and a spiritual soul. He was like a father to his deceased sister's children, Nicholas Lloyd, Jessica Ann and Christina Rose Bartos. He referred to his deceased lifetime business partner's sons Roger and Christopher as his children. They have lived with him since their teens.

Gifted with a quirky wit, John's laughter usually made him the center of attention. He laughed and joked in the midst of adversity. The depth of John's generosity, loyalty, love and devotion to family was unfathomable. John shared all his success with the friends and family he was so devoted to, leaving only the bare necessities for himself. John's passions were family, ancestry, and sports. He was an avid fan of all Detroit teams, even in the hospital he kept up with the scores of all his teams. John's was truly a celebration of life. Appreciation goes out to The University of Michigan whose skill and compassion gave John the time he needed to make peace and complete his life.

A funeral service will be held at Hebrew Memorial Chapel.

A link will be provided for a webcast of the service.

“ I have many great memories of my cousin Johnny. He used to act like a boogeyman in his third floor
"apartment" in their house on Atkinson, scaring all of the younger cousins, He was a warm and friendly guy, and had positive energy, very sweet. Sad that there are no other posts here.
