“ *Dear Chana and boys,
Wow.. Joey! Always smiling, always inviting , always warm and loving. The meals we had by you always brightened our shabbas day. Joey had an amazing personality and even though I moved away, all of you were so close to my heart. Joey, I will miss you.

“ Joey, or as I called him, Mr. Greenfield, was always so friendly and humorous. I always felt like family at your house. I fondly remember sleeping over for a week in the deep Michigan winter when my parents were on vacation, and whenever our family came over for Shabbos lunch or vice versa, and the Seder. He will be so missed!

“ I remember coming to your house for dinners and to eat in the sukkah. Cousin Joey always had the TV on watching a game. He was a true sports fan and always had a joke to share. So sorry for this sudden loss. What mazel that he shared in Zevi and Annette's simcha. May his memory be a blessing.

“ Dear Channa, Zev & Annette, Steven & Keri: What great sadness has befallen all of you and all of our extended family as well! ! Ever since I became a member of the Greenfield family, more than 46 years ago, Joey has always been warm and welcoming to me. Shelly and I are still shocked by this sudden news. Boruch Hashem that all of you were together for Zev and Annette's beautiful simcha. May Joey's precious Neshama be a Maylitz Yosher for all of you! With all of our love, Avie and Shelly.
