“ Mr Israel was always friendly and concerned for others welfare in our brief weekly encounters over the years. His smiling wave will be missed.

“ My husband and I have known the Israel Family for decades. I was friends with his sister Marsha and my husband was friends with Joey. I would have them over for dinner throughout the years. Joey was very nice - courteous - and appreciative for the invite. May he rest in peace. He was a devoted son and a very good person. Good memories from the past will long be remembered.

“ I did not know Joseph long or well, but I can say that he was always courteous, friendly and cheerful. I will miss seeing him and speaking with him at our brief encounters.
