“ I met Joy In the 70's when I married their friend Don Morrow. We were invited to their home many times for various celebrations. Joy was a kind and generous friend. I have thought about her many times in the past few years. With Love, Carolyn Morrow

“ The service today was beautiful and filled with love! Wonderful memories of Joy, fill my mind! Family get togethers, Joys, love of entertaining, her kindness and caring to the community and everyone. Truly an amazing soul she was! It was so very touching that my Mom's name was mentioned in the heartwarming eulogy. The tears were flowing from my eyes. Thank goodness, my Mom insisted that Joy went to that dance with her! The rest is history! And what a wonderful history Joy leaves to all of us! I will miss Joy and Lou.... they are together again. I will always be their “flower girl” . The tears are flowing again!

“ Beyond the sorrow comes the joy in knowing that Lou and Joy didn't spend much time apart. It puts a little smile on my face knowing that they are together and no longer have suffering or pain. I am glad my folks shared a dining room table with Joy and with frequent visits by Lou, Sharon and family, we became family. A privilege I'll always treasure. My condolences and love to all. “ What a beautiful soul! I will always treasure how back in 1984 I was assigned for a three month special project in Detroit and Joyce and Lou integrated me to their family as one of their own. How could I forget... since thanks to their warmed initiative, I treasured beautiful memories. To this date, and thanks to Sharon I've been part of their family too!
