“ To the Voldman family:
I wish to send my belated condolences. On behalf of Paul's family, including myself, his father, his sister, brother-in-law and niece and nephew, I want to express how sorry we are about Karena's passing. I only spent time with her twice over the years that she and Paul were together, but I did communicate with her by text and through the mail. She was a lovely woman, very talented and kind, and she was instrumental in getting my son, Paul, to reach out to me after years of estrangement. I am so sorry that she suffered so much and that you all had to watch her suffer. But now, she is at peace. I want to thank you for welcoming my son into your family and supporting him through the years, especially in the last few months and weeks of Karena's life. I lost a daughter too, so I know your pain. I will continue to pray for her and all of you, especially Alex. Again, my deepest sympathy. Sincerely, Mary Scislowicz (Colorado).

“ I am extremely saddened by the loss of your mother Alex, she was truly a wonderful human, I got to know her when you and Joseph were young, and I enjoyed being with her on school outings and seeing her happy being your mom. I will pray for her soul and for your strength and resilience during this difficult time.. her memories should be a blessing for a lifetime..

“Karenichka, I knew you when we were so young, bold, and strong. We were tenacious, hilarious, and flawless. You were creative and artful and saw the world through a unique lens no one else could observe. You held secrets and kept them safe like cherished little treasures. We were amazing and hard-core, with unlimited possibility. We had long roads ahead of us with unknown turns, but it didn't matter then because life seemed eternal. There was no ending, and this is how I'll always remember you. ~ Amy Z
