“ Karl was my sons father and my soulmate...the love of my life. Part of me died when he died.I've never been the same. We would make each other laugh for hours. We for sure were meant to be. He showed me/taught me so many wonderful things especially about the Jewish faith. . because I'm a Christian. I even wanted to convert...and possibly still might. I am going to raise our child how Karl would have wanted. I miss him every day... Every breath i take.

“ Karl was a good, caring individual. He was intelligent, and he was strong. He never judged people, and he treated everyone he met with decency and kindness. Everywhere he went people remembered him, and he made friends easily. It's hard to believe he's gone, and I'm so sad for his little child. I'll always remember him as a good man and a truly unique individual. May his family find some solace and peace in this time of mourning. Miss you friend ...

“Karl was one of the most engaging young men we ever met. We remember his Bar Mitzvah and his joy for life as a teenager. He made us laugh and he had funny names for scenery that we passed every day along the way to Pathway. He was a remarkable human being and we grieve for his mom and sister and their loss.
