“ Kathy was a good person I met many years ago through her cousin, George Mann. They were both only children, so seemed more like siblings. Later in life, I interacted with Kathy occasionally in her capacity as a social worker at Coville Assisted Living, within the Prentis Jewish Senior Life Apartments. My late mother, Irma Allweiss, lived at Coville for a year. I found Kathy to be both professional and caring. I'm very sorry for her passing at so young of an age and sending my condolences to Zachary, Elliot, and George, Ann and their children.

“ Kathy was a patient, methodical quilter with an eye toward beauty, pattern and color. She had the ability to sit quietly, listen carefully and respond gently with delicacy. Her heart was full and her spirit gentle and deep. A true friend whose tenacity was a marvel. She’s irreplaceable and living without her as a constant presence is hard to conceive of. She was a friend to my children and a steady companion in this life. She has been a blessing and a gift. She has been a teacher to me in ways that will continue to grow beyond her lifetime.

“ *Dear Zach, Elliott: Your Mother was an extraordinary woman. She lived her life as a blessing to others. Not only was she a wonderful daughter, Mother and friend, but she guided others to live their best lives. Her unassuming kindness and nonjudgmental approach to Social Work encouraged her clients to trust her and reap the benefits of her vast experience. I count myself of many fortunate to know her and love her as a dear friend, a talented artist and lots of fun. She was so proud of you both, with good reason. Condolences on your loss. Kathy will always be my Sister-In-Law/Friend. Kathy and I said our good-byes, we always ended our conversations with "I love you". I will miss her dearly. She spoke highly of Zack and Elliott (when we spoke of them, lol) She had a good sense of humor which she would want you to remember. RIP Kathy.

*Dear Zack and Elliott,
Your Mother was my friend for the past 54 years. I'm grateful that I had an opportunity to spend some time with her in June. We talked about our memories of our travels together in Canada, Europe, Israel and of course of the two of you.*

Your Mother battled her illness with grace, dignity and courage. She was very proud of the two of you and she loved you very much. I m sorry that her dream of taking the two of you to Japan and to the Van Morrison concert did not come to fruition.

Your Mother was a devoted mother, daughter and friend. I will miss her terrible. May her memory be a blessing.

How sad. What I remember most is how your Mother treated others and how she took care of them. She will be missed.
