“ I Love Cousin Larry Very much. He loved me too, and always showed it.

Larry enjoyed having fun at the casino. Not a gambler (at least w/money), a dancer.

Just like me after dancing, he was a ball of sweat. Jan was there one time watching him having fun. When I sat next to her, she said "Hello Sam." Larry came over and refreshed her memory, and the 3 of us talked about other times from the past, and had a sweet time.

Larry had the "mischievous gene." I know because I have it too. He would give a certain smile, and also a particular squint from his eyes, letting me know we were going to do something or consider doing something we ought not do. Pretty sure in some cases he did. I did too.

I'm going to miss my Dear Cousin.

He didn't have a bad bone in his body, only good ones. I will always treasure his love, kindness, and sweetness toward me.
