“Debbie and Families, I am so sorry to learn about Larry’s passing, however I can hear Larry’s response in my head as I write this.

Although our careers took us many places, we stayed in touch over several decades, and talked like it was just yesterday.

I will remember and hold in my heart Larry’s loyalty as my Dear Friend. Larry support me with his encouragement and humor when I went through a challenging time with my child who was very ill. Larry would talk with me while I drove from Detroit to Ohio every work day during the winter months of 1999.

Larry knew how to be a friend to a woman like a sister. I made it through this challenging time by Larry’s support. I will always be grateful to Larry for his love and support as my dear Friend.

I have count less stories of Larry’s advice that helped me navigate through enormous challenges. I hold these life circumstances dear to me due to Larry’s love of his ENORMOUS friendships. Larry always made me laugh.

When Larry met Debbie, I knew she was “The one”. I beamed with happiness for Larry, as I knew Debbie was the only woman that could tame Larry.

I felt a sense of relief when Debbie said “Yes”.

Debbie, you were the wind beneath Larry’s wings, and knew how to reel him in and handle him. I am forever grateful for your dedicated love as his wife. You have my utmost respect for loving and taming a devote bachelor.

Larry knew you would be the only woman who could handle his personality.

God bless you Debbie; I trust you know how much Larry loved you!

Peace,

*Margaret,
Your beautifully and eloquently written memorial about Larry brought tears but touched my heart as I read your heartfelt words. Larry and Debbie were the perfect couple. I was so happy to hear that they were getting married and so devastated when I learned the sad information about his passing.*
