“ I had the privilege of caring for, and protecting, dearest Rifkah for the past 13 years. I have known her almost 30 years. She was a gentle and loving soul. Prior to needing protection for herself after a disability, Rifkah protected and cared for others in need at Group Homes. Her smile would light up the room. She was loved by all who knew her. This included her dearest and oldest friend, Barbara Norman, as well as her doctors and caregivers. Even with her disability, Rifkah reached out to help and comfort her friends like Denise and Marianne. We will all miss her more than words can express.
