“ Hebrew Memorial Chapel created a Webcast in memory of LEONARD JACOBSON

I was absolutely heartbroken when I found out that Lenny died, especially so young. In the late 1970s, I met Lenny while attending a USY convention in Detroit that was being hosted by his synagogue. I was a bit lost in the synagogue and wasn't sure where to go. He walked up and introduced himself to me in that cool, gravelly voice as if we had been good friends for years. Within five seconds of seeing his great smile and experiencing his dynamic personality, I said to myself, "Who is this kid? He's great!" His social skills were incredible.

We discovered that we were in the same grade. I think it was our 10th grade year.

He asked me, where "we" should go. There were a bunch of sessions with different topics going on in various rooms, so we chose one. We were late and so took seats in the back of the room. We hung out that evening and I never forgot him. Over the years during my life, his name would somehow end up in a conversation I was having and I'd always mention that dynamic kid from Detroit I met in USY who was a ball of energy.

I'd love to see the webcast for Lenny but I don't know how to get password to access it.

My deepest condolences to his family and everyone else who loved him. Man, did that kid light up a room.

“ I was thinking of Lenny today and discovered this news. I met Lenny in law school at the University of Toledo. He was one of the happiest most positive people I have known. We stayed in touch over the years and this news makes me sad. Lenny loved his 3 girls and always talked about them. I know they will miss him terribly but he will always be smiling fine in them.
