“ as his grandson I loved him with all my heart and always had a great time when I was with him, I would give anything in the world to spend one more day with him

“ I admittedly randomly came across this page and was shocked to see the news. Leonid Strugach was my first chess coach, where I worked with him between 2008-2012 when I was a child. I owe a lot to him, as he had a very strong grasp of chess fundamentals that were useful to any aspiring chess player. This fundamental understanding of chess helped me to relatively comfortably progress through beginner to a National Chess Master in the US by 2012. I don't remember if he had many other students, but he would've been a fantastic coaching resource for anyone who not only wanted to just improve their chess, but also have stability in their improvement, as I hit very few roadblocks in my initial chess progress.

It's shocking that I will never be able to see him again. My condolences to his family and other friends.

“ Дорогой наш дядя Лёня, ты всегда был частью всей моей сознательной жизни. Рядом с тобой прошло моё детство и юность. Мы всегда жили в одном городе и ни один наш семейный праздник не проходил без тебя. Ты всегда был внимательным и заботливым дядей. Моя семья и я тебя очень любили и будем любить всю жизнь. Спи спокойно дядя Лёня. Пусть земля будет тебе пухом.
