“ I have so many girlhood memories of my friend, Libbie. We spent countless hours in the basement of the family home on Church St., doing paint-by-number sets. One summer, the 2 of us had a “babysitting” service, where parents would pay us 50-cents a day to take care of their young children. We saved enough money to buy matching outfits for the new school year. We stayed in touch by telephone throughout the years, and Libbie & Ross visited us in Las Vegas before Ross became ill, & we spent a wonderful day rekindling our friendship. Libbie will always have a spot in my heart - rest in peace dear friend!
